

TURNS REPUBLICAN.

Yerxa Senator Quits the Party of Negation for Good Cause.

NOTICE IN OFFICIAL FORM.

Will Not Support a Party That Gives Aid and Encouragement to Rebels Against the Authority of the Government—Calls at Republican Headquarters—Scores Mr. Bryan.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Senator William M. Stewart, of Nevada, who left the Republican party in 1895 on the silver question called at Republican headquarters to-day and said he had decided to vote for President McKinley. He had made a statement in part, as follows:

"The United States went to war with Spain urged on by the Democratic party. The popularity of the war was such that Mr. Bryan joined the army. The war was successful and a treaty of peace was entered into whereby the United States agreed to pay $20,000,000 and accept the sovereignty and public property of Spain in the Philippine archipelago. There was opposition to the ratification of the treaty. Mr. Bryan came to Washington and persuaded his Democratic friends to vote for the treaty. It then became the duty of the United States to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of all residents in the islands, whether native or foreign born. The United States at the time of the ratification of the treaty held military possession of Manila and immediately after such ratification assumed the sovereignty of the islands. The people of the United States and particularly of the Pacific coast, became entitled to the vast commerce of the Pacific ocean of which the Philippines furnished the key.

Aguinaldo's Treachery.
One Aguinaldo had raised a rebellion in Luzon against Spain, before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States. This adventurer had sold out or settled his rebellion with Spain for $400,000 before Dewey set sail for Manila, and was a part of the bargain with Spain. Aguinaldo agreed to leave the islands and never return. Dewey took the wily agitator back to the islands. Aguinaldo would naturally be an enemy of Spain and a friend of the United States. In this Admiral Dewey was mistaken. Aguinaldo, as soon as he landed on his native soil, organized a rebellion against the United States which would have been of little consequence if he had not been able to obtain comfort and aid in this country. An organization was formed in the United States called the "Anti-Imperialist League," which has for the last two years co-operated with Aguinaldo's Tagal junta, with headquarters at Hong Kong to supply literature and means of war for Aguinaldo. President McKinley had no authority to buy out Aguinaldo's rebellion against the United States, but was bound by the treaty which was the supreme law of the land, to maintain law and order and protect life and property in the islands. It required a large army and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to put down Aguinaldo's rebellion.

Misled by Bryan.
The assistance and the encouragement he received from the anti-imperialist league and the enemies of the United States both at home and abroad, made his barbarous and irregular war bloody and expensive. Congress, however, made all necessary appropriations, providing the executive men and money to maintain the authority of the United States in the Philippines. The so-called anti-imperialists declared that the policy pursued by the government to put down the rebellion and maintain law and order in all territories of the United States without regard to the time when such territories were acquired, was "imperialism" and that any use of the army to maintain law and order—however necessary—was "militarism" and that giving aid and comfort to rebels in arms against the United States was maintaining the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

"Mr. Bryan's unparalleled campaign for the principle of the Chicago platform and his insistence upon the adoption of that platform at Kansas City, induced the people to suppose the campaign of 1900 would be conducted on the issues of 1896. In this it seems they were mistaken."

Senator Stewart then quotes Mr. Bryan's declaration of his intention, if elected, to call an extraordinary session of Congress to give the Philippines freedom upon the same terms as Cuba. He denounces the decent convention of anti-imperialists at Indianapolis and denounces Mr. Bryan for promising to attempt to "extend the Monroe doctrine to the Orient."

Ah Sin's Little Game.
London Outlook: The Chinaman still continues his game of "poker" with the nations. He still holds a fine hand of ministers, officials, women and babies, which he is playing for all he can make it worth against a hand of "foreign fleets and soldiers." He believes the nations are opposing him in his own spirit; human life to him is but a red herring, so that he is never really lying or telling the truth; he is merely playing the game.

Brave Men Fall.
Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, of Idaho, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now do anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

If Baby is Cutting Teeth.
Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
